

THE BUZZ

Your neighbourhood hot list for July!

For the cause

Boksburg Advertiser, in partnership with the Boksburg SPCA, East Rand Mall and Super CD, is running an exciting competition for animal lovers. Over the past few years, the Advertiser has turned its ordinary adopt-a-pet page into a poster, based on a popular movie. These SPCA movie posters included films such as Titanic, Goldeneye, Avatar, High School Musical and Singin' in the Rain and starred animals up for adoption at the society. The posters have been well-received and put a lighter spin on the serious situation of animal neglect, abuse and abandonment. Now the public can vote for their favourite SPCA movie poster and stand a chance to win a prize. The posters have been placed on our web site: www.looklocal.co.za and will be displayed in the East Rand Mall for the next few weeks. You can enter by sending a sms or buying a "voting card". Pick your favourite and SMS BAC5 spca, the poster number and your name to 34274 - each SMS costs R2 - and you stand a chance of winning one of two R250 Super CD vouchers, or a R250 East Rand Mall Gift Card. Alternatively, visit the East Rand Mall, the Boksburg SPCA in Railway Street, or the Boksburg Advertiser office at Sydney Road, Ravenswood and buy a "voting card" for only R10. You can win an East Rand Mall Gift Card worth R500, a Super CD voucher worth R500, or a DVD hamper containing most of the movies that have been turned into SPCA posters. The competition runs until July 15 and all the proceeds will be donated to the Boksburg SPCA.

Cosy bookworm corner

Enjoy a cup of coffee and a cupcake on a comfortable sofa while browsing through books from your favourite author. The Cosy Corner Book Exchange & Cup Cake Boutique recently opened at Lakefield Village, Main Road, Benoni. The owner, Chris Williams, stocks brand new books, nearly new books and a large collection of older books. Book clubs are welcome to make use of the venue. 084 400 9644.

LLOYD CELE ONE

Lloyd's the One

Lloyd Cele, runner-up on South African Idols, has written and composed almost all of the songs on his debut album, One. Lloyd was very fortunate to be working with the heavyweights of the South African music industry in putting his debut album together. The album is about embracing South Africa's diverse culture, racial groups, and musical influences and fusing them together in one album. Get your copy at Super CD, East Rand Mall, Boksburg, 011 823 4111. R90.

A fabulous night out!

Enjoy a gala evening of dance and dinner at a winter wonderland ball which will be held at Lakeside Mall, Benoni on July 9. All in aid of raising funds for schools and charities. Choose between an English, vegetarian or Indian dinner. Tickets R380. Book at www.computicket.com.

Beads for a cause

Hip*e beads started in 2008 when Elsje Blair, Ryk Neethling's sister, was in hospital after spinal surgery to remove a cancerous tumour. She is currently undergoing intense radiation therapy treatment to eradicate the cancer in her spine. Elsje makes these beads herself and the proceeds go towards paying off her medical bills. "Beading is so therapeutic to me and it's an extra bonus to put a smile on people's dial with my colourful pieces. It makes them happy and it makes me very happy," says Elsje. Order your unique piece at hipebeads@gmail.com.

Rugby – love or addiction

There's little doubt that South Africans are mad about rugby. In Rugby in our Blood some of the country's most famous rugby fans, and a Springbok or two, put into plain words what the game means to them. In the run-up to the Rugby World Cup the likes of former DA leader Tony Leon, Spud author John van de Ruit and 702 talk show host John Robbie share their favourite rugby stories. Leon Schuster claims that playing pranks on his Shimla teammates kick-started his career in comedy, while former Springbok Kobus Wiese reveals a hilarious anecdote about a fellow tight forward on tour in Paris. Buy your copy from Exclusive Books, Greenstone Shopping Centre, Edenvale, R175.

WIN!
Get it, together with NB Publishers, is giving away three copies of Rugby in our Blood. Sms ERRUGBY to 34274, Sms costs R2.

Winter blues busting beauties

As the winter chill grips the air and heavy layers of clothing and red runny noses become commonplace, people start falling victim to the winter blues! Boost Juice is lifting the spirit with the new Winter Guardian Range – the Berry Chill Buster Crush and the Ninja Ninja Juice which will bring back that spring to your step and help build your immune system with a super protector booster punch! Visit your Boost Juice outlet at Greenstone Shopping Centre, Edenvale or East Rand Mall, Boksburg. Original 650ml, R35 and medium 450ml, R30.